DID YOU KNOW?

Inflation Is The Silent Retirement Thief

Inflation works quietly but its impact is powerful. It reduces the value of money over time. This means that what comfortably meets your needs today may not suffice in the future. Left unchecked, it can gradually erode the strength of your retirement income.

The good news? You can stay ahead of it by being intentional today.

- 1 Start early and stay consistent
Time allows your savings to grow and outpace inflation.
- 2 Boost your contributions as you grow
Small increases today can make a significant difference tomorrow.
- 3 Let your pension work smarter
Professionally managed funds are structured to grow your savings and help preserve your purchasing power.

- 4 Stay connected. Stay in control
Regularly monitor and review your retirement plan to ensure it keeps pace with economic realities.

Don't just save: Stay ahead. Track, review and grow your pension effortlessly on the Trustfund Pensions Mobile App because every smart step today secures a stronger tomorrow.

BREAKING NEWS

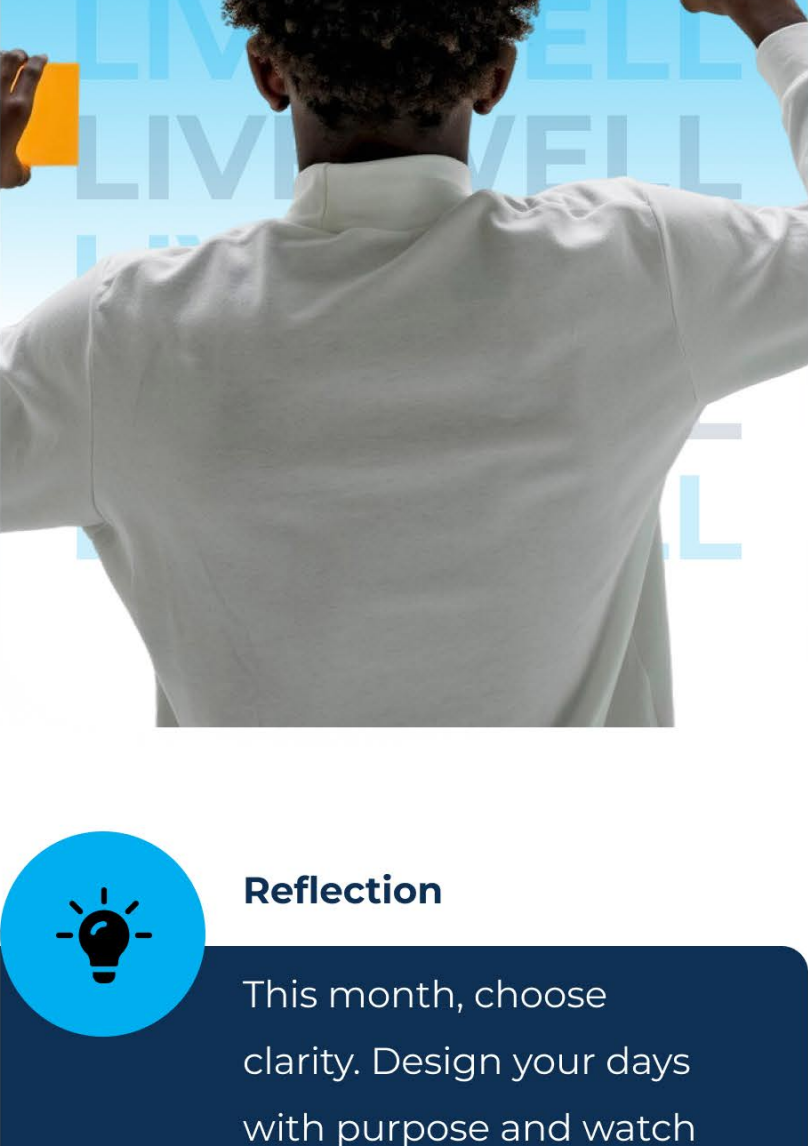

Pension news and updates

Nigeria's Pension Assets Surge to Record N29.43tn in February 2026: Nigeria's pension fund assets reached a new all-time high of N29.43 trillion in February 2026, rising by N1.39 trillion from N28.04 trillion in January, according to the National Pension Commission.

The surge was driven by fresh contributions and strong valuation gains, particularly in domestic equities, which climbed to N5.41 trillion amid improved investor sentiment. Foreign equities remained modest at N261.99 billion due to global uncertainties. Corporate debt securities rose to N2.25 trillion, while state government bonds stood at N368.99 billion, reflecting PFAs' preference for stable fixed-income assets.

Report Reveals Worsening Savings Crisis Among Nigerians: Nigeria is facing a deepening savings crisis, with 53 per cent of citizens lacking any financial buffer, according to the PiggyVest Savings Report 2025. The survey of 20,000 respondents shows many Nigerians do not prioritise saving amid rising inflation and living costs, leaving households vulnerable to emergencies. Mutual Benefits Assurance has urged a shift from informal saving habits to structured financial products, stressing that poor savings culture often reflects weak planning rather than income levels.

Clarity is Power: Designing Your Days with Purpose

In an age of constant information and competing priorities, clarity has become one of the most valuable personal assets.

Productivity thrives where there is direction. Without clarity, effort becomes scattered. With clarity, even modest actions become meaningful and effective. The simple act of defining your priorities each day transforms how you work, the decisions you make and how you engage.

Reflection
 This month, choose clarity. Design your days with purpose and watch how everything else begins to align.
 As April unfolds, let it be a season of intentional growth where productivity is guided by purpose and wellness becomes a daily commitment to your best self.

- 1 Start each morning with intention. INTENTION
- 2 Identify what truly matters, not just what is urgent. URGENCY
- 3 Align your actions with your long-term goals and create space for what nourishes your well-being. ALIGNMENT

Wellness is not separate from productivity, rather it's the foundation. A clear mind, a focused plan and a balanced approach create better results, a more fulfilling experience of work and life.
